

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This Report is a document based on the information received from the graduates. It is prepared as per the criteria designed and allocated by UGC. We would like to express our gratitude to UGC for the support and encouragement for the accomplishment of this task. We would like to thank the QAA division of UGC for the well-guidance in arrangement of annexes.

We have no words to convey our feelings of gratitude to our honorable chairman of campus management committee Dilliraj Gyawali and Campus Chief Yadulal Pantha for their valuable suggestion and inputs to conduct this study. Without their support, this report would otherwise, never have witnessed the form it appears at present. We would like to acknowledge the guardians, all the members of different committees, FSU, Alumni Association, Parent Teacher Association and directly or indirectly involved stakeholders.

We are thankful to all the HODs, Faculty Members, Employees and the students for their kind co-operation. We would also like to extend sincere appreciations to the offices and organizations in which our graduates serve for providing data. We would also like to gratefully acknowledge the campuses who assisted by sharing the ideas and ways of managing annexes smoothly.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Sahid Narayan Pokharel Ramapur Campus is a nonprofit making community based academic institution which is imparting education to the students who are socio-economically back in the catchments area. This campus has been running graduate programs in management and education and postgraduate in education . This tracer study was conducted with the main objective to provide information to SNPRC about the employment status and status for further study of graduates and postgraduates and strengths and weaknesses of the programs, and overall education delivery mechanism. The tracer study covered the graduates of academic year 2017 A.D. of two graduates and one postgraduate level program, namely, Bachelor in Business Studies (BBS), Bachelor in Education (B.Ed.) and Master's in Education (M.Ed.). Purposive sampling technique was used to collect useable data from 30 graduates and 6 postgraduates. Tracer study committee members, non teaching staffs and ex – students were activated to collect data through direct visit, telephone interview, and electronic media during the reference period from Magh 5th to Chaitra 20th 2075. The survey instrument was a set of questionnaire designed by the UGC, Nepal. Quantitative data were analyzed through frequencies. The analyses of the tracer study are organized in the four meaningful sections which are:

- (a) Employment status of the respondents
- (b) Status of further study of graduates
- (c) Profile of respondents and
- (d) Quality and relevance of program.
